Rare type of tick inexplicably turns up in Arkansan

By Hannah Grabenstein
The Associated Press

In humans, the ticks can carry diseases such as severe fever with thrombocytopenia syndrome, which can have a fatality rate of up to 30 percent. Arkansas Department of Health officials said it's possible the ticks can also carry diseases that pose a serious threat to humans and animals.

Funds raised for local Be Their Muscle, contact 609-543-9057

By Lauren Purnell

Bob Meyer Communities recently donated their time, skills and efforts to make sure that YMCA Camp Ockanickon is ready for the more than 700 children who will be attending camp this summer.

Bob Meyer Communities recently donated their time, skills and efforts to make sure that YMCA Camp Ockanickon is ready for the more than 700 children who will be attending camp this summer.